

The main differences between the Divine Plan Healing System and Reiki

- ♥ Reiki is a healing method that brings healing. Divine Plan healing goes beyond healing. This method also opens your heart and your consciousness (consciousness which is something else than reason) at the deepest level. The more Divine Plan healings you receive or give, the more the veils of consciousness will be lifted.
- ♥ Reiki was received around 1920 and was most suitable for people of the 20th century. The Divine Plan Healing System was received in 2013 and is therefore well suited to people of the 21st century, the era of accelerated personal growth and evolution.
- ♥ The Divine Plan is not a 'hands on' healing system and is therefore different from Reiki. How? Because you don't use your own body for the transmission of energy. In Divine Plan healing you are the witness of the healing which the Light performs. This way you cannot accidentally
  - pick up client's energies (and vice versa), or
  - give away your own energy.
- ♥ In Divine Plan healings you work with the Emerald Heart Light. This Light is also called the Light of Truth. It shows you the truth in your heart, like your talents, gifts and life mission(s). Each person came to the earth to learn and to fulfil certain things, but as soon as we incarnate we tend to completely forget our individual divine plan. Divine Plan healings align you and connect you to your own divine plan – while at the same time you can work on other targets in your (self-)healings.
- ♥ After a Divine Plan session it is not only the client who is 'purified', but also the space. That is why the healer doesn't need to wash his hands or clean the room with sage or something similar, which is absolutely necessary after a Reiki session.
- ♥ Reiki treatments cannot be extended and deepened like Divine Plan healings. Divine Plan healings can be extended and deepened for 6 (!) weeks. How? By taking the Divine Love essence. The Divine Plan healing session is not an isolated event, but is the kick-off of a transformation process that lasts 1.5 months. In other words, for just 28.65 Euros extra, your clients receive a 6-weeks transformation process. This is unique and not available anywhere else.
- ♥ The Divine Plan Healing System is a five dimensional healing system which means that you work on the Fifth Dimension, the level of consciousness where all is one. This is the highest level on which healing and awareness can take place.

- ♥ Divine Plan healings are relatively cheap because you receive a 6-weeks transformation process with a one-time investment. And you get a healing at the deepest level.

Advantages for the Divine Plan Healer

- ♥ You receive unique attunements, which are gifted by the Emerald Heart Light. These align you and connect you with your individual Divine Plan. In addition, they accelerate your personal and spiritual development in an unprecedented manner.
- ♥ The first attunement (part of the first training) connects your heart with the core/the heart of Mother Earth. Making your grounding a lot better and you can start working with the high vibration of the Emerald Heart Light.
- ♥ With your first attunement you become part of the Path of Light, a kind of highway between your heart and the Source. This means that each time you give a Divine Plan healing, your Path of Light becomes a little wider. This makes your heart open a little more, each time.
- ♥ The second attunement (second training) enables you to embody both the masculine and the feminine aspect of the Divine Consciousness (God Consciousness) in a balanced way. How? Because your heart will be connected to both aspects of the Source: the Divine Masculine and the Divine Feminine. This has a particularly healing and wholing effect.
- ♥ After the second attunement your healings become even stronger and faster.
- ♥ Once you have become a professional advanced Divine Plan healer, you may be eligible to do the Divine Plan teacher training. You will learn how to give trainings, attunements and mentor sessions.
